Dead Guitars - Flags

In 2003 Pete Brough, one of the founder-members of German band TWELVE DRUMMERS DRUMMING, and Ralf Aussem, guitarist from the original 12DD cast and mastermind behind the hugely successful band SUN, joined forces with vocalist Carlo van Putten (THE CONVENT) and collectively gave life to DEAD GUITARS. In 2007 they were joined by Patrick Schmitz – Drums and Sven-Olaf Dirks – Bass Guitar, a down-to-earth rhythm section providing a solid foundation within the Dead Guitars family.

After the success of their 2007 debut Airplanes and their extensive European tour with THE MISSION in 2008 the band returned to the studio to record the new album. This time three members of THE MISSION collaborated and performed on the new album, Wayne Hussey (Isolation), Mark G.Thwaite (Pristine) and Richie Vernon (Blue).

The result is an album with 12 unique tracks representing the whole Dead Guitars universe including mid and up-tempo tracks like Miss America or Pristine, strong epic/psychedelic songs like Silver Cross River and moody pieces like Lazy Moon or Raise Your Flags. The songs are covered by strong lyrics based on powerful and melancholic song-writing.

Flags is a demonstration of the bands capabilities to define their own musical style whilst being comprehensible and enjoyable to listen to.
